Product short description:

The luminaire is sold without a bulb.

The Quad collection offers a wide range of lamps - pendant, wall, ceiling - in different colours. This is a great advantage, especially for those who want to organise their flat in a uniform way. But that doesn't mean that all the lamps have to be the same colour. By drifting between the different colour variations in the same collection, you can achieve an extremely interesting lighting arrangement. Modern Quad lamps are simply the essence of good style.
